

DOCUMENTS THMP WILL ACCEPT

Please see back of page for what THMP will take. This list does not contain all documents that THMP will take. Please see the application for more information. Call your local agency or THMP with questions about documents.

The whole application must be filled out. We need the most up-to-date information. Please sign and date page 5 before you turn it in.

You can find the most current application here: dshs.texas.gov/hivstd/meds/document

(1) THMP needs proof of where you live. This proof must have your full name and be current and valid. If you are a student living outside of Texas to attend school, you may apply for THMP if you have: a) A denial letter from ADAP in your school’s state, b) proof with the address where you live in Texas and c) Proof of school enrollment

(2) THMP needs proof of your current income. We need to know how much money you earn and how often you get paid. If you are married, we also need this for your spouse. This includes if you are common-law married. We also need to know how many children under the age of 18 live with you. This includes children you are the legal parent of and your stepchildren. We use this to figure out your family income.

If you do not earn income, we can accept other proof:

| If you are a student                     | We can take a letter that shows you are in school and your current financial aid award letter. This needs to be from your school, not from FAFSA.  |
| If you pay your bills with savings       | We can take a copy of your most recent bank account statement. This should show both deposits and withdrawals.   |
| If you pay your bills with child support | We need your child support letter from the OAG. If your child support is an informal agreement, we can take a letter from yourself and the other parent. Your child support document needs to say how much you get and how often. |
| If you are homeless                      | Provide a letter from the shelter or agency worker about you and where you get mail. May also be used as Proof of Texas Residency if you are homeless.   |
| If somebody else supports you            | We can take a copy of the THMP Supporter Statement (on page 7). This needs to be filled out and signed by the person who supports you.   |

(3) If you are new to the program, ask your doctor to fill out a “Medical Certification Form” (MCF). This will tell us what medication you need.

***THMP may ask for more information, if needed, such as a copy of your most recent IRS Tax Return Transcript or IRS Proof of non-filing.
