Child Care
Service Standards

HRSA Definition: The RWHAP supports intermittent child care services for the children living in the household of PLWH who are RWHAP-eligible clients for the purpose of enabling clients to attend medical visits, related appointments, and/or RWHAP-related meetings, groups, or training sessions.

Program Guidance: The use of funds under this service category should be limited and carefully monitored.

Such arrangements may also raise liability issues for the funding source, which should be carefully weighed in the decision process.

Limitations: Direct cash payments to clients are not permitted.

Services: Child Care Services is the provision of intermittent child care for children living in the household of RWHAP-eligible clients for the purpose of attending medical visits, related appointments to support HIV care, and RWHAP-related meetings, groups, and trainings. Allowable uses of funds include: a licensed or registered child care provider to deliver intermittent care; informal child care provided by a neighbor, family member, or other person (federal restrictions prohibit giving cash to clients or caregivers to pay for these services).
